FYI,

In response to commitments made during a meeting with Dan Powell on October 28th, I called him seeking information on the status of the reclamation proposal he had promised to submit by November 14, 2003. Mr. Powell explained that he had not had an opportunity to schedule a meeting with Steve Powell and Nielson Construction yet, but he had received phone calls from them. He stated he has been preoccupied the last 2 weeks getting prepared for his marriage tomorrow. He asked for another 2-wks to submit the plan.

He said he would be out of town for a week, but would call me on November 24th with an update on the status of his plan. He said their plans had not changed from what was discussed in our meeting last month. He plans to meet with his cousin and the contractor soon and submit their plan by the end of November for our consideration.
